

Privacy Policy

The Oita Asian Sculpture Exhibition Application Pages (hereinafter referred to as "this site") will collect, use, and manage personal information appropriately as follows, and will strive to ensure that everyone can use the site with peace of mind.

1. Basic Concept

The administrator of this site collects information about users of this site to the extent necessary for the smooth operation of the services provided on this site (provision of information by this site, acceptance of application forms, etc.). The collected information will be handled appropriately within the scope of the purpose of use.

2. Scope of information collected

This site collects information related to individuals, including information that can identify a specific individual, such as addresses, names, telephone numbers, and email addresses, according to the purpose of use.

In addition, this site automatically collects information such as Internet domain names, IP addresses, and browsing history (hereinafter referred to as "browsing history") of which pages users viewed on this site and how they viewed them. Cookies (information stored in the user's browser and sent from the user's browser to the server) are used only for the purpose of identifying the user on the server side, collecting browsing history, grasping the browsing status of this site such as the number of accesses, and for the purpose of improving the convenience of the browser display function.

3. Purpose of Use

The information collected on this site is used to provide services on this site and for smooth operation.

Requests and inquiries may be forwarded to related parties depending on the content.

4. Restrictions on Use and Provision

Except as specified in the "Bungo-Ono City Personal Information Protection Act Enforcement Ordinance", the administrator will not use the collected information for purposes other than "3. Purpose of Use" or provide it to third parties. However, statistically processed information on access to this site, user attributes, etc. may be made public.

5. Measures to Ensure Safety

The administrator of this site will take necessary measures to prevent the leakage, loss, or damage of collected information and to properly manage the collected information. The operation of this site may be outsourced, but the outsourced party will also take necessary measures to properly manage the collected information.

6. Scope of Application

This policy applies only to this site and does not apply to other sites linked from this site. Please check the privacy policies of the SNS services used on this site on the websites of the respective operators.

7. About the access analysis tool

This site uses the access analysis tool "Google Analytics" by Google to understand the usage status of the site and to improve the quality of the site. This access analysis tool uses cookies to collect traffic data. This data is non-personal data, not personal data. In addition, the information collected by cookies is used to improve services such as making advertisements more effective and improving user experience.

How the acquired data is handled and how privacy is protected is managed in accordance with Google policy. For information on the handling of "Google Analytics", please refer to the contents described in "Google Privacy Policy \(external link\)".

8. Other

The administrator has the right to revise this privacy policy at any time. All changes on this page will take effect immediately after being posted.
